BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT AT OUR CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Back to School Nights are in full swing! Our Child Development Center held their exciting and engaging Back to School Night on Wednesday, August 14th. Parents had an opportunity to visit their child's classroom and teacher. Thank you to our Director of Early Childhood Education Julie Pretzer and all of her wonderful staff for their hard work in coordinating this event for parents and students.

BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT AT WILLOW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Willow Elementary School also held their Back to School Night on Wednesday, August 14th. Principal Myrna Cerda shared valuable information for the 2024-2025 school year. Afterwards, parents had an opportunity to visit their child's classroom and teacher. A special thank you to Willow Elementary School staff and Principal Myrna Cerda for all of their efforts in creating a beautiful and successful Back to School Night for parents and students!

RECOMMITTING AND REIMAGINING WORKSHOP FOR EDUCATORS

On Friday, August 16, district Dual Language teachers gathered at San Ysidro Middle School to rededicate and recommit to the principles of the Dual Language Program Handbook which was recreated last year by the Dual Language Task Force. Our Coordinator of Federal and State Programs and Language Acquisition Ms. Connie Rodriguez and staff from the San Diego County Office of Education led the discussion around our SYSD DLP Model: In our commitment we recognized that fully biliterate students, especially English Learners benefit and thrive academically.

A special thanks to our Board Vice President Zenaida Rosario for her vision and field expertise. We also thank the Educational Services staff for coordinating a truly inspirational event! ¡Que vivan los maestros y los alumnos de San Ysidro!

SELPA ADR

Educación Especial

Resolución Alternativa de Conflictos

¿Qué es la RAC? (Resolución Alternativa de Conflictos)

La RAC es un proceso voluntario para resolver conflictos sobre educación especial en un entorno neutral, respetuoso y afectuoso. Utiliza comunicación clara, colaboración, negociación y mediación para producir un acuerdo justo que satisfaga los intereses de todas las partes involucradas. El proceso de RAC permite a las partes llegar a un resultado innovador y aceptable para ambas partes.

¿Por qué debería elegir la RAC?

RAC es para familias y distritos que desean trabajar juntos para resolver desacuerdos y crear relaciones de trabajo colaborativo que beneficien al estudiante.

Servicios que Proporcionamos*

OPCIONES INFORMALES:

- Padres Recurso: Los asistentes de recursos brindan información y apoyo a las familias en educación especial
- Revisión Neutral de Caso por Parte de SELPA: Revisión por una parte neutral que puede incluir revisión de expedientes, observación del estudiante/entorno, y/o comunicación oral para ofrecer un análisis del área de preocupación actual
- Apoyo Neutral de SELPA al IEP: Recomendado cuando la reunión del IEP se beneficiaría del apoyo adicional de una parte neutral para solicitar aclaraciones y para asegurar una comunicación positiva recíproca

OPCIONES FORMALES:

- IEP Facilitado (SELPA o un tercero): La parte neutral facilitará una reunión formal del IEP para abordar las preocupaciones relacionadas con el IEP
- Mediación de Resolución Temprana de Conflictos: Un mediador capacitado trabaja con los padres y distritos para resolver un posible conflicto en la oportunidad más temprana
- Reunión de Resolución Facilitada: Un facilitador neutral ayuda a las partes a llevar a cabo de manera colaborativa la reunión de resolución legalmente requerida

* ver sitio web para más información

Benefits of ADR?

- FREE: ADR provides free, neutral services at no cost to interested parties
- CONFIDENTIAL: The ADR process is confidential and voluntary
- FAST AND CONVENIENT: Parties choosing to engage in ADR receive resolution at the local level and in a timely manner
- COLLABORATIVE RESULTS: Families and school teams work together to establish mutual agreements through proactive and intentional planning
- LEGAL PROTECTION: Families maintain rights to due process under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)
- INDIVIDUALIZATION: ADR sessions are customized to meet unique situations and needs of all involved parties

How do I start the ADR Process?

Complete the Google referral form found at www.sdcoe.net/scselpa-adr or if unable to access the form, call 619-470-5252 for assistance.

Is ADR Mandatory?

No, participation in ADR is voluntary and based upon both the parents and the District wanting to reach agreement. Parents may withdraw from the process at any time.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

What is ADR? (Alternative Dispute Resolution)

ADR is a voluntary process for resolving special education conflict in a neutral, respectful, and caring environment. It uses clear communication, collaboration, negotiation, and mediation to produce a fair agreement that meets the interest of all parties involved. The ADR process allows the parties to come up with an innovative and jointly agreeable outcome.

Why Should You Choose ADR?

ADR is for families and districts who want to work together to resolve disagreements and create collaborative working relationships that benefit the student.

Services We Provide*

INFORMAL ADR OPTIONS:

- Resource Parent Support: Resource assistants provide information and support to families in Special Education
- Neutral SELPA Case Review: A neutral party review that may include records review, observation of student and/or environment, and/or verbal communication to provide an analysis of the current area of concern
- Neutral SELPA IEP Support: Recommended when the IEP meeting would benefit from the added support of a neutral to ask for clarification and to ensure positive reciprocal communication

FORMAL ADR OPTIONS:

- Facilitated IEP (SELPA or Third Party): A Neutral will facilitate a formal IEP meeting to address concerns related to the IEP
- Early Dispute Resolution Mediation: A trained mediator works with parents and districts to resolve a prospective dispute at the earliest opportunity
- Facilitated Resolution Meeting: A neutral facilitator(s) helps parties complete the legally required resolution meeting in a collaborative manner

Our district and the YMCA continue to hold exciting collaborations, including our Innovación program, the groundbreaking before and after school program redefining educational enrichment and student opportunities.

The word Innovación refers to a process where new ideas and services are introduced that have positive and significant value. Innovación is determined by curiosity, creativity, and desire to improve. Innovación can lead to social progress and provide new opportunities. From empowering academics to exhilarating sports, artistic expression to fostering social-emotional intelligence, every moment at Innovación is a journey of discovery. Rooted in inclusivity, we celebrate diversity and embrace every learner, ensuring a vibrant community where all can thrive. Join us in shaping tomorrow's leaders, one transformative experience at a time. Welcome to Innovación, where every child's curiosity, creativity, and desire to improve will be nurtured and celebrated.
