Quality education and opportunity for all students to succeed

8-20-23

Hello Families and Staff,

The school districts in south San Diego County are working together to closely monitor the tropical storm caused by Hurricane Hilary. The storm is scheduled to impact our region today, Sunday, August 20th and will subside by Monday, August 21st.

Our families rely heavily on our schools to provide a safe place for students during the work day, therefore we are committed to staying open as long as conditions allow.

Our south county school districts are aware that various decisions are being made by other entities regarding holding classes on Monday. For instance, various colleges and universities have made the decision to hold classes remotely.

Due to the fact that our south county schools have been open for about a month we plan to remain open this Monday as long as conditions permit. Please continue to monitor our district and school emails, social media, websites and communication portals for additional updates.

Sincerely,

Dr. Eduardo Reyes
Chula Vista Elementary School District

Queridas Familias y Personal Académico:

Los distritos escolares del sur del condado de San Diego trabajan juntos en el monitoreo de la tormenta tropical causada por el huracán Hilary. El pronóstico es que la tormenta llegue a nuestra región el día de hoy domingo 20 de agosto y que las lluvias torrenciales disminuyan paulatinamente para el lunes 21 de agosto.

Nuestras familias dependen de nuestros planteles escolares para proveer un sitio seguro para los alumnos, especialmente durante las horas laborales. Es por este motivo que nos comprometemos a mantener nuestras aulas e instalaciones abiertas siempre que las condiciones lo permitan.

Nuestros distritos escolares del sur del condado de San Diego estamos conscientes de las decisiones tomadas por otras instituciones u organismos gubernamentales sobre la suspensión de clases en sus escuelas este lunes entrante. Por ejemplo, varios colegios comunitarios y Universidades han tomado la decisión de ofrecer sus clases en línea.

Debido a que nuestras escuelas del sur del condado de San Diego han permanecido abiertas por un aproximado de un mes, planeamos mantener nuestras puertas abiertas este lunes, siempre que las condiciones lo permitan. Por favor continúe monitoreando los correos electrónicos del distrito escolar y su escuela asignada, también manténgase pendiente de nuestras redes sociales, las páginas de internet y demás medios de comunicación para recibir alertas o información de su utilidad.

Sinceramente,

Dr. Eduardo Reyes
